

Dear ESAT Producer of "Sile Ethiopia",

I followed today, Oct. 22 , program of "Sile Ethiopia". The "denouncement", by Jawar Mohamed on his facebook about the recent woyane appointment of high rank military officials which you read, is not unexpected. Jawar, the leader of "Oromo First" movement, is seeing all the politics from Oromos VS Others angle.

He publicly supported OPDO even if it is a Woyane creation to control the "Oromo Kill". He criticized Woyane for not appointing Oromo for top military position but he is behind OPDO for cleansing other ethnicity from Oromo Kilil.

Jawar Mohamed is a strategic ally of Woyane. He seems to quarrel here and there with Woyane like he has done this week with the appointment of high rank military officials. Strategically he is a promoter of Woyane divide and rule by ethnicity.

You are trying to bring back Jawar Mohamed into ESAT after he was rejected by Ethiopians following "Ethiopia out of Oromia" and "Slit the non Oromos throat" rant few months back.

Jawar Mohammed and Woyane are not different. Both are driven by ethnicity. The difference is Woyane on power while Jawar and the "Oromo First" are conspiring against Ethiopia and Ethiopians from Diaspora. We should not waste precious airtime promoting such divisive individual.

Thanks,

Tedla Asfaw.
