

Disillusionment takes center stage.

By Fretsidiq Fekade

Out freaking rageous! Here they come turning into a ridiculed personalities. What a cataclysmic political overture being introduced: misrepresentation of the people's objective reality, nostalgic of the old habit-ascension to power by withholding the people's mandate, etc are of the attributes materialized in the scuffle of the kinjit leadership in the past few weeks. What is going on brothers and sisters, what is going on here and there? Are we letting our people succumb into a grandiose political farce. Lately, we have witnessed a hasty political rhetoric echoing in high frequency through the mind of score of people amid what is believed to have been effective political fight undertaking . We have also seen inadvertently the political race between kinjit leadership with repugnant identity. Where are we heading to? I thought these two bodies of kinjit were born from the same seed espouse same principle and objectivity; or may be I was wrong in believing so. How can we let them pass us unchecked when a dozens of them galloping just to maintain self acclaim irrespective of their suffering and trials. By principle altruism doesn't justify reciprocity when it is indeed one must pay for the sake of truth. Confinement and incarceration, victory and liberty of course are inevitable when one assertively put the profound principle in place and enshrine its discipline thus shouldn't bewilder or take us by surprise as to why certain circumstances are prevalent. I don't even grasp the contemporaries hyperbolic expression of patriotism. X and Y are patriots because they uphold un wavering courage consistent to the principle or just because they are wannabes. In what seems to be an entertainment business politics, encapsulate one with names and reputation wouldn't ease up the treacherous condition our people have entrenched into nor induce a lasting resolution.

What one must ask at this point of time is what should be done to do away with the repressive government of weyane; what are the tools help convey our sentiments and put out the political mayhem in order to establish a better political system? How do we stay the course with out trembling , and so on. The kinjit leadership engage mainly in peripheral issues and are so puny in their responsibility to address prudential elements to the people. This doesn't epitomize just only a lack of vision , but also depicts deficit in pious intelligentsia to apprehend their misguided and uncalculated race. Brothers and sisters, we have witnessed sometime ago the political process upheld by many members of kinjit and the journey they designed was incredibly authentic and terrific. So what is happening now is it takes a meandering course, a mere wandering with no point of reference-winding, twisting and wobbling around are so far the fruits of the experience; a futile endeavor. It further darkens the light and hope we all envisioned, by high magnitude further deteriorate people's innocent mentality. We shouldn't be divided even though the scandalous rhetoric of the few promulgated ostensibly. We should unite with one accord and scrupulous spirit so as to squash an orderly conduct tantamount to lengthen our struggle .

The self incriminating combatants of neo-patriotic kinjit leadership focus more on winning the heart and mind of an easily-manipulated, myopic, and a lap sided supporters than the substance of its own polity. A hell bent accusation, defamation, false allegation etc bring about unfathomable predicament to its own very existence more than anything else. I cant grasp the idiocy hovers around the vicinity of their mental aura to the point where I should question the integrity of their moral axioms. Two wrongs cant make one right ! isn't it true? People are being galvanized to make points here and there, looking for vantage points to emphatically to destroy the other groupies, running ups and downs to groom and recruit supporters. people hear me out , what the hell is wrong with these supposititious cliques . To begin with, who gave them the mandate euphorically to do whatever they want to do.

Those who claim to have been a short lived victim of weyane and other semblance with little political intellect running the media outlets just to get a hold of a status qua must be evacuated from where they dwell in and if possible rebuked . For They are not any more than bone and skull to carry out a diligent social duties. A purposeful, conscientious citizens must replace their slot for a better end thereby perpetuate astounding political system. Brothers and sisters, this political incorrectness has been such a cult circulating in our veins like a venom ; for that mater, if not put off promptly, will kill the spirit believed to have been where kinjit made of in the twinkling of an eye. Let us not be swayed away by simple pretentious Ethiopiawinet emotion because the fight requires lots of discernment. And lets understand the fruit of the spirit ; any spirit that's not of Ethiopia must wither away with its intent. Fight evil and Ethiopia prevails!

Fretsidiq Fekade